Rational for Curricular Substitution

SUNY Brockport is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Dance (NASD) and must follow established guidelines for accredited degree programs. NASD standards for Undergraduate BFA Major Programs under "Curricular Components", item d., states, "A minimum of two years of course work in choreography, including improvisational studies, should be provided." Brockport's BFA degree currently meets these requirements with DNS 364 Dance Improvisation, DNS 306 Beginning Composition, DNS 430 Intermediate Composition, and DNS 427 Dance Performance Techniques. The dance faculty supports the NASD standards and believes DNS 431 Advanced Dance Composition more effectively meets the standard than DNS 427 Dance Performance Techniques.

RE: Letter of Support – DNS

Please accept this letter in support of the proposal for the Department of Dance to substitute DNS 431 (Advanced Dance Composition) for DNS 427 (Dance Performance Technique) in the current BFA curriculum. It is the Department's judgment that DNS 431 more directly meets the intent of a requirement of their accrediting body (National Association of Schools of Dance) than does DNS 427.

As you will see, the proposal is credit neutral for students and I am assured by the Department that it is also resource neutral; 427 will no longer be offered as part of the regular rotation of courses and there are no additional costs associated with offering additional sections of 431. The proposal seems very straight-forward and it has my support.

SUNY BROCKPORT

Department of Dance

September 24, 2007

Dear College Senate:

Attached please find a proposal for a curriculum substitution (#06 07-08 UC BFA in Dance) submitted by dance faculty member, Jim Hansen. This substitution falls in line with the instructional standards set by the National Association of Schools of Dance (NASD), our accrediting organization. As an institutional member of NASD, it is required that we fulfill the requirement of two years of course work in dance composition.

Presently, DNS 427 Dance Performance Technique is inappropriately used to cover one of the required semesters of composition. The content of DNS 431 Advanced Dance Composition is more in line with what NASD requires of a BFA program.

I support this proposal and feel that it will better prepare our students for the rigors of the professional field of dance.

Sincerely,

Dr. Darwin Prioleau
Chair, Department of Dance
